

Florida Real Estate Practice Test

Free Real Estate License Practice Questions with Answers

- 50 carefully curated practice questions
- Real exam format and difficulty
- Updated for 2026 regulations
- Print-ready professional design

Ready to pass your exam? Practice with our interactive exam simulator:

Start Free Simulator at realestatequestionbank.com

Premium Access: Full Question Bank • Real Mock Tests • Smart Dashboard

Practice Questions

1. A developer buys a large tract of land in Miami, designs three standard floor plans, and builds 50 homes without having pre-arranged buyers. What type of residential construction is this?

- A) Custom home building
- B) Speculative (spec) building
- C) Tract home building
- D) Dedication building

2. Jones manages an apartment building in Orlando for an owner who lives in Miami. Under Florida law, owners who do not reside on the property and rely on property managers are called:

- A) Tenant landlords.
- B) Absentee owners.
- C) Fiduciary principals.
- D) Off-site syndicates.

3. Sales associate Miller is asked by a seller to estimate the market value of their home. Miller prepares a Comparative Market Analysis (CMA). Which of the following is correct regarding a CMA under Florida law?

- A) A CMA must strictly comply with Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP).
- B) A sales associate cannot charge a fee for preparing a CMA.
- C) A CMA is not an appraisal and does not need to conform to USPAP standards.
- D) Only licensed appraisers are allowed to prepare CMAs.

4. A developer in Jacksonville completes construction of a new residential subdivision and transfers ownership of the streets, sidewalks, and park areas to the local municipality. This transfer is known as:

- A) Eminent domain.
- B) Condemnation.
- C) Dedication.
- D) Subdivision allocation.

5. A developer buys a large tract of land in Tallahassee, designs three standard floor plans, and builds 50 homes without having pre-arranged buyers. What type of residential construction is this?

- A) Custom home building
- B) Speculative (spec) building
- C) Tract home building
- D) Dedication building

6. Rodriguez manages an apartment building in Fort Lauderdale for an owner who lives in Miami. Under Florida law, owners who do not reside on the property and rely on property managers are called:

- A) Tenant landlords.
- B) Absentee owners.
- C) Fiduciary principals.
- D) Off-site syndicates.

7. Sales associate Hernandez is asked by a seller to estimate the market value of their home. Hernandez prepares a Comparative Market Analysis (CMA). Which of the following is correct regarding a CMA under Florida law?

- A) A CMA must strictly comply with Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP).
- B) A sales associate cannot charge a fee for preparing a CMA.
- C) A CMA is not an appraisal and does not need to conform to USPAP standards.
- D) Only licensed appraisers are allowed to prepare CMAs.

8. A developer in Naples completes construction of a new residential subdivision and transfers ownership of the streets, sidewalks, and park areas to the local municipality. This transfer is known as:

- A) Eminent domain.
- B) Condemnation.
- C) Dedication.
- D) Subdivision allocation.

9. A developer buys a large tract of land in St. Petersburg, designs three standard floor plans, and builds 50 homes without having pre-arranged buyers. What type of residential construction is this?

- A) Custom home building
- B) Speculative (spec) building
- C) Tract home building
- D) Dedication building

10. Wilson manages an apartment building in Pensacola for an owner who lives in Miami. Under Florida law, owners who do not reside on the property and rely on property managers are called:

- A) Tenant landlords.
- B) Absentee owners.
- C) Fiduciary principals.
- D) Off-site syndicates.

11. Sales associate Anderson is asked by a seller to estimate the market value of their home. Anderson prepares a Comparative Market Analysis (CMA). Which of the following is correct regarding a CMA under Florida law?

- A) A CMA must strictly comply with Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP).
- B) A sales associate cannot charge a fee for preparing a CMA.
- C) A CMA is not an appraisal and does not need to conform to USPAP standards.
- D) Only licensed appraisers are allowed to prepare CMAs.

12. A developer in Orlando completes construction of a new residential subdivision and transfers ownership of the streets, sidewalks, and park areas to the local municipality. This transfer is known as:

- A) Eminent domain.
- B) Condemnation.
- C) Dedication.
- D) Subdivision allocation.

13. A developer buys a large tract of land in Tampa, designs three standard floor plans, and builds 50 homes without having pre-arranged buyers. What type of residential construction is this?

- A) Custom home building
- B) Speculative (spec) building
- C) Tract home building
- D) Dedication building

14. Jackson manages an apartment building in Jacksonville for an owner who lives in Miami. Under Florida law, owners who do not reside on the property and rely on property managers are called:

- A) Tenant landlords.
- B) Absentee owners.
- C) Fiduciary principals.
- D) Off-site syndicates.

15. Sales associate Martin is asked by a seller to estimate the market value of their home. Martin prepares a Comparative Market Analysis (CMA). Which of the following is correct regarding a CMA under Florida law?

- A) A CMA must strictly comply with Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP).
- B) A sales associate cannot charge a fee for preparing a CMA.
- C) A CMA is not an appraisal and does not need to conform to USPAP standards.
- D) Only licensed appraisers are allowed to prepare CMAs.

16. A developer in Fort Lauderdale completes construction of a new residential subdivision and transfers ownership of the streets, sidewalks, and park areas to the local municipality. This transfer is known as:

- A) Eminent domain.
- B) Condemnation.
- C) Dedication.
- D) Subdivision allocation.

17. A developer buys a large tract of land in Sarasota, designs three standard floor plans, and builds 50 homes without having pre-arranged buyers. What type of residential construction is this?

- A) Custom home building
- B) Speculative (spec) building
- C) Tract home building
- D) Dedication building

18. Thompson manages an apartment building in Naples for an owner who lives in Miami. Under Florida law, owners who do not reside on the property and rely on property managers are called:

- A) Tenant landlords.
- B) Absentee owners.
- C) Fiduciary principals.
- D) Off-site syndicates.

19. Sales associate White is asked by a seller to estimate the market value of their home. White prepares a Comparative Market Analysis (CMA). Which of the following is correct regarding a CMA under Florida law?

- A) A CMA must strictly comply with Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP).
- B) A sales associate cannot charge a fee for preparing a CMA.
- C) A CMA is not an appraisal and does not need to conform to USPAP standards.
- D) Only licensed appraisers are allowed to prepare CMAs.

20. A developer in Pensacola completes construction of a new residential subdivision and transfers ownership of the streets, sidewalks, and park areas to the local municipality. This transfer is known as:

- A) Eminent domain.
- B) Condemnation.
- C) Dedication.
- D) Subdivision allocation.

21. Which of the following activities requires a Florida real estate license if performed for another person and for compensation?

- A) Renting or leasing real property.
- B) Selling cemetery lots.
- C) Appraising property for a federally-related loan transaction.
- D) An attorney-in-fact signing a deed.

22. Davis is a salaried manager of a condominium complex in Orlando and rents individual units for periods of up to one year. Does Davis need a real estate license?

- A) Yes, because renting property always requires a license.
- B) No, salaried employees of an owner or condo association renting for up to one year are exempt.
- C) Yes, unless they work for a registered developer.
- D) No, only if they work on commission.

23. A sales associate fails to complete the mandatory 45-hour post-licensing education course before their first license renewal deadline. What is the status of their license?

- A) It becomes involuntary inactive.
- B) It becomes null and void by operation of law.
- C) It is suspended for up to 90 days.
- D) It remains active if they pay a late fee.

24. When applying for a Florida real estate license, applicant Rodriguez has a past misdemeanor conviction where adjudication was withheld. What is Rodriguez's obligation on the DBPR application?

- A) They do not need to disclose it because adjudication was withheld.
- B) They must fully disclose the conviction and circumstances on the application.
- C) They only need to disclose it if it was a felony.
- D) They must notify the DBPR only after passing the exam.

25. An active Florida sales associate moves from Miami to Florida. Within how many days must the licensee notify the DBPR of their change of state residency?

- A) 10 days
- B) 30 days
- C) 60 days
- D) 90 days

26. An applicant resides in a state that has a Mutual Recognition agreement with Florida. To obtain a Florida sales associate license, the applicant must:

- A) Take the full 63-hour pre-licensing course.
- B) Pass a 40-question exam on Florida real estate law with a score of 75% or higher.
- C) Simply pay a registration fee; no exam is required.
- D) Work under a Florida broker for at least 12 months.

27. Which of the following activities requires a Florida real estate license if performed for another person and for compensation?

- A) Renting or leasing real property.
- B) Selling cemetery lots.
- C) Appraising property for a federally-related loan transaction.
- D) An attorney-in-fact signing a deed.

28. Wilson is a salaried manager of a condominium complex in Naples and rents individual units for periods of up to one year. Does Wilson need a real estate license?

- A) Yes, because renting property always requires a license.
- B) No, salaried employees of an owner or condo association renting for up to one year are exempt.
- C) Yes, unless they work for a registered developer.
- D) No, only if they work on commission.

29. A sales associate fails to complete the mandatory 45-hour post-licensing education course before their first license renewal deadline. What is the status of their license?

- A) It becomes involuntary inactive.
- B) It becomes null and void by operation of law.
- C) It is suspended for up to 90 days.
- D) It remains active if they pay a late fee.

30. When applying for a Florida real estate license, applicant Taylor has a past misdemeanor conviction where adjudication was withheld. What is Taylor's obligation on the DBPR application?

- A) They do not need to disclose it because adjudication was withheld.
- B) They must fully disclose the conviction and circumstances on the application.
- C) They only need to disclose it if it was a felony.
- D) They must notify the DBPR only after passing the exam.

31. An active Florida sales associate moves from Miami to Florida. Within how many days must the licensee notify the DBPR of their change of state residency?

- A) 10 days
- B) 30 days
- C) 60 days
- D) 90 days

32. An applicant resides in a state that has a Mutual Recognition agreement with Florida. To obtain a Florida sales associate license, the applicant must:

- A) Take the full 63-hour pre-licensing course.
- B) Pass a 40-question exam on Florida real estate law with a score of 75% or higher.
- C) Simply pay a registration fee; no exam is required.
- D) Work under a Florida broker for at least 12 months.

33. Which of the following activities requires a Florida real estate license if performed for another person and for compensation?

- A) Renting or leasing real property.
- B) Selling cemetery lots.
- C) Appraising property for a federally-related loan transaction.
- D) An attorney-in-fact signing a deed.

34. Lee is a salaried manager of a condominium complex in Jacksonville and rents individual units for periods of up to one year. Does Lee need a real estate license?

- A) Yes, because renting property always requires a license.
- B) No, salaried employees of an owner or condo association renting for up to one year are exempt.
- C) Yes, unless they work for a registered developer.
- D) No, only if they work on commission.

35. A sales associate fails to complete the mandatory 45-hour post-licensing education course before their first license renewal deadline. What is the status of their license?

- A) It becomes involuntary inactive.
- B) It becomes null and void by operation of law.
- C) It is suspended for up to 90 days.
- D) It remains active if they pay a late fee.

36. When applying for a Florida real estate license, applicant Thompson has a past misdemeanor conviction where adjudication was withheld. What is Thompson's obligation on the DBPR application?

- A) They do not need to disclose it because adjudication was withheld.
- B) They must fully disclose the conviction and circumstances on the application.
- C) They only need to disclose it if it was a felony.
- D) They must notify the DBPR only after passing the exam.

37. An active Florida sales associate moves from Miami to Florida. Within how many days must the licensee notify the DBPR of their change of state residency?

- A) 10 days
- B) 30 days
- C) 60 days
- D) 90 days

38. An applicant resides in a state that has a Mutual Recognition agreement with Florida. To obtain a Florida sales associate license, the applicant must:

- A) Take the full 63-hour pre-licensing course.
- B) Pass a 40-question exam on Florida real estate law with a score of 75% or higher.
- C) Simply pay a registration fee; no exam is required.
- D) Work under a Florida broker for at least 12 months.

39. Which of the following activities requires a Florida real estate license if performed for another person and for compensation?

- A) Renting or leasing real property.
- B) Selling cemetery lots.
- C) Appraising property for a federally-related loan transaction.
- D) An attorney-in-fact signing a deed.

40. Clark is a salaried manager of a condominium complex in Pensacola and rents individual units for periods of up to one year. Does Clark need a real estate license?

- A) Yes, because renting property always requires a license.
- B) No, salaried employees of an owner or condo association renting for up to one year are exempt.
- C) Yes, unless they work for a registered developer.
- D) No, only if they work on commission.

41. A sales associate fails to complete the mandatory 45-hour post-licensing education course before their first license renewal deadline. What is the status of their license?

- A) It becomes involuntary inactive.
- B) It becomes null and void by operation of law.
- C) It is suspended for up to 90 days.
- D) It remains active if they pay a late fee.

42. When applying for a Florida real estate license, applicant Lewis has a past misdemeanor conviction where adjudication was withheld. What is Lewis's obligation on the DBPR application?

- A) They do not need to disclose it because adjudication was withheld.
- B) They must fully disclose the conviction and circumstances on the application.
- C) They only need to disclose it if it was a felony.
- D) They must notify the DBPR only after passing the exam.

43. An active Florida sales associate moves from Miami to Florida. Within how many days must the licensee notify the DBPR of their change of state residency?

- A) 10 days
- B) 30 days
- C) 60 days
- D) 90 days

44. An applicant resides in a state that has a Mutual Recognition agreement with Florida. To obtain a Florida sales associate license, the applicant must:

- A) Take the full 63-hour pre-licensing course.
- B) Pass a 40-question exam on Florida real estate law with a score of 75% or higher.
- C) Simply pay a registration fee; no exam is required.
- D) Work under a Florida broker for at least 12 months.

45. Which of the following activities requires a Florida real estate license if performed for another person and for compensation?

- A) Renting or leasing real property.
- B) Selling cemetery lots.
- C) Appraising property for a federally-related loan transaction.
- D) An attorney-in-fact signing a deed.

46. Allen is a salaried manager of a condominium complex in Fort Lauderdale and rents individual units for periods of up to one year. Does Allen need a real estate license?

- A) Yes, because renting property always requires a license.
- B) No, salaried employees of an owner or condo association renting for up to one year are exempt.
- C) Yes, unless they work for a registered developer.
- D) No, only if they work on commission.

47. A sales associate fails to complete the mandatory 45-hour post-licensing education course before their first license renewal deadline. What is the status of their license?

- A) It becomes involuntary inactive.
- B) It becomes null and void by operation of law.
- C) It is suspended for up to 90 days.
- D) It remains active if they pay a late fee.

48. When applying for a Florida real estate license, applicant Wright has a past misdemeanor conviction where adjudication was withheld. What is Wright's obligation on the DBPR application?

- A) They do not need to disclose it because adjudication was withheld.
- B) They must fully disclose the conviction and circumstances on the application.
- C) They only need to disclose it if it was a felony.
- D) They must notify the DBPR only after passing the exam.

49. An active Florida sales associate moves from Miami to Florida. Within how many days must the licensee notify the DBPR of their change of state residency?

- A) 10 days
- B) 30 days
- C) 60 days
- D) 90 days

50. An applicant resides in a state that has a Mutual Recognition agreement with Florida. To obtain a Florida sales associate license, the applicant must:

- A) Take the full 63-hour pre-licensing course.
- B) Pass a 40-question exam on Florida real estate law with a score of 75% or higher.
- C) Simply pay a registration fee; no exam is required.
- D) Work under a Florida broker for at least 12 months.

Answer Key & Explanations

Question 1: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Tract building involves building model homes on a large tract of land, where buyers choose from a few pre-set floor plans.

Question 2: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Absentee owners are property owners who do not reside on the property and rely on professional property managers to protect and manage their investment.

Question 3: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Under Florida law, a CMA is a marketing tool prepared by licensees and is exempt from USPAP appraisal guidelines.

Question 4: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Dedication is the gift of land by a developer to a public government entity for public use (e.g., streets, sewers, parks).

Question 5: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Tract building involves building model homes on a large tract of land, where buyers choose from a few pre-set floor plans.

Question 6: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Absentee owners are property owners who do not reside on the property and rely on professional property managers to protect and manage their investment.

Question 7: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Under Florida law, a CMA is a marketing tool prepared by licensees and is exempt from USPAP appraisal guidelines.

Question 8: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Dedication is the gift of land by a developer to a public government entity for public use (e.g., streets, sewers, parks).

Question 9: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Tract building involves building model homes on a large tract of land, where buyers choose from a few pre-set floor plans.

Question 10: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Absentee owners are property owners who do not reside on the property and rely on professional property managers to protect and manage their investment.

Question 11: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Under Florida law, a CMA is a marketing tool prepared by licensees and is exempt from USPAP appraisal guidelines.

Question 12: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Dedication is the gift of land by a developer to a public government entity for public use (e.g., streets, sewers, parks).

Question 13: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Tract building involves building model homes on a large tract of land, where buyers choose from a few pre-set floor plans.

Question 14: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Absentee owners are property owners who do not reside on the property and rely on professional property managers to protect and manage their investment.

Question 15: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Under Florida law, a CMA is a marketing tool prepared by licensees and is exempt from USPAP appraisal guidelines.

Question 16: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Dedication is the gift of land by a developer to a public government entity for public use (e.g., streets, sewers, parks).

Question 17: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Tract building involves building model homes on a large tract of land, where buyers choose from a few pre-set floor plans.

Question 18: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Absentee owners are property owners who do not reside on the property and rely on professional property managers to protect and manage their investment.

Question 19: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Under Florida law, a CMA is a marketing tool prepared by licensees and is exempt from USPAP appraisal guidelines.

Question 20: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Dedication is the gift of land by a developer to a public government entity for public use (e.g., streets, sewers, parks).

Question 21: Correct Answer (A)

Explanation: Under Florida Statute 475, renting or leasing property (part of the 'A BAR SALE' acronym) is a compensable real estate service requiring a license.

Question 22: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Florida law exempts salaried employees of a condominium or cooperative association who rent units for periods of one year or less.

Question 23: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Failure to complete the post-licensing course before the first renewal deadline makes the license null and void; the licensee must start over.

Question 24: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Florida license applications require full disclosure of all criminal offenses, including misdemeanors and felonies, even if adjudication was withheld.

Question 25: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Florida licensees who become non-residents must notify the DBPR of their change in residency within 60 days.

Question 26: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Mutual recognition allows qualified out-of-state residents to bypass the pre-license course and take a 40-question Florida-specific law exam.

Question 27: Correct Answer (A)

Explanation: Under Florida Statute 475, renting or leasing property (part of the 'A BAR SALE' acronym) is a compensable real estate service requiring a license.

Question 28: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Florida law exempts salaried employees of a condominium or cooperative association who rent units for periods of one year or less.

Question 29: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Failure to complete the post-licensing course before the first renewal deadline makes the license null and void; the licensee must start over.

Question 30: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Florida license applications require full disclosure of all criminal offenses, including misdemeanors and felonies, even if adjudication was withheld.

Question 31: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Florida licensees who become non-residents must notify the DBPR of their change in residency within 60 days.

Question 32: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Mutual recognition allows qualified out-of-state residents to bypass the pre-license course and take a 40-question Florida-specific law exam.

Question 33: Correct Answer (A)

Explanation: Under Florida Statute 475, renting or leasing property (part of the 'A BAR SALE' acronym) is a compensable real estate service requiring a license.

Question 34: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Florida law exempts salaried employees of a condominium or cooperative association who rent units for periods of one year or less.

Question 35: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Failure to complete the post-licensing course before the first renewal deadline makes the license null and void; the licensee must start over.

Question 36: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Florida license applications require full disclosure of all criminal offenses, including misdemeanors and felonies, even if adjudication was withheld.

Question 37: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Florida licensees who become non-residents must notify the DBPR of their change in residency within 60 days.

Question 38: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Mutual recognition allows qualified out-of-state residents to bypass the pre-license course and take a 40-question Florida-specific law exam.

Question 39: Correct Answer (A)

Explanation: Under Florida Statute 475, renting or leasing property (part of the 'A BAR SALE' acronym) is a compensable real estate service requiring a license.

Question 40: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Florida law exempts salaried employees of a condominium or cooperative association who rent units for periods of one year or less.

Question 41: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Failure to complete the post-licensing course before the first renewal deadline makes the license null and void; the licensee must start over.

Question 42: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Florida license applications require full disclosure of all criminal offenses, including misdemeanors and felonies, even if adjudication was withheld.

Question 43: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Florida licensees who become non-residents must notify the DBPR of their change in residency within 60 days.

Question 44: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Mutual recognition allows qualified out-of-state residents to bypass the pre-license course and take a 40-question Florida-specific law exam.

Question 45: Correct Answer (A)

Explanation: Under Florida Statute 475, renting or leasing property (part of the 'A BAR SALE' acronym) is a compensable real estate service requiring a license.

Question 46: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Florida law exempts salaried employees of a condominium or cooperative association who rent units for periods of one year or less.

Question 47: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Failure to complete the post-licensing course before the first renewal deadline makes the license null and void; the licensee must start over.

Question 48: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Florida license applications require full disclosure of all criminal offenses, including misdemeanors and felonies, even if adjudication was withheld.

Question 49: Correct Answer (C)

Explanation: Florida licensees who become non-residents must notify the DBPR of their change in residency within 60 days.

Question 50: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Mutual recognition allows qualified out-of-state residents to bypass the pre-license course and take a 40-question Florida-specific law exam.