

New York Real Estate Practice Test

Free Real Estate License Practice Questions with Answers

- 50 carefully curated practice questions
- Real exam format and difficulty
- Updated for 2026 regulations
- Print-ready professional design

Ready to pass your exam? Practice with our interactive exam simulator:

Start Free Simulator at realestatequestionbank.com

Premium Access: Full Question Bank • Real Mock Tests • Smart Dashboard

Practice Questions

1. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

2. A seller in Brooklyn wants to list their property. They agree that broker Garcia can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

3. Salesperson Martinez closes a transaction in Queens and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

4. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

5. A seller in Rochester wants to list their property. They agree that broker Thomas can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

6. Salesperson Rodriguez closes a transaction in Syracuse and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

7. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

8. A seller in Yonkers wants to list their property. They agree that broker Lopez can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

9. Salesperson Gonzalez closes a transaction in White Plains and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

10. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

11. A seller in Manhattan wants to list their property. They agree that broker Anderson can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

12. Salesperson Taylor closes a transaction in Brooklyn and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

13. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

14. A seller in Buffalo wants to list their property. They agree that broker Jackson can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

15. Salesperson Martin closes a transaction in Rochester and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

16. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

17. A seller in Albany wants to list their property. They agree that broker Perez can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

18. Salesperson Thompson closes a transaction in Yonkers and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

19. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

20. A seller in Ithaca wants to list their property. They agree that broker Harris can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

21. Salesperson Sanchez closes a transaction in Manhattan and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

22. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

23. A seller in Queens wants to list their property. They agree that broker Ramirez can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

24. Salesperson Lewis closes a transaction in Buffalo and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

25. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

26. A seller in Syracuse wants to list their property. They agree that broker Walker can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

27. Salesperson Young closes a transaction in Albany and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

28. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

29. A seller in White Plains wants to list their property. They agree that broker King can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

30. Salesperson Wright closes a transaction in Ithaca and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

31. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

32. A seller in Brooklyn wants to list their property. They agree that broker Garcia can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

33. Salesperson Martinez closes a transaction in Queens and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

34. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

35. A seller in Rochester wants to list their property. They agree that broker Thomas can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

36. Salesperson Rodriguez closes a transaction in Syracuse and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

37. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

38. A seller in Yonkers wants to list their property. They agree that broker Lopez can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

39. Salesperson Gonzalez closes a transaction in White Plains and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

40. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

41. A seller in Manhattan wants to list their property. They agree that broker Anderson can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

42. Salesperson Taylor closes a transaction in Brooklyn and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

43. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

44. A seller in Buffalo wants to list their property. They agree that broker Jackson can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

45. Salesperson Martin closes a transaction in Rochester and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

46. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

47. A seller in Albany wants to list their property. They agree that broker Perez can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

48. Salesperson Thompson closes a transaction in Yonkers and wants to pay a referral fee to an unlicensed friend who recommended the buyer. This is:

- A) Legal as long as the fee is under $500.
- B) A violation of Article 12-A; licensees cannot split commissions or pay referral fees to unlicensed individuals.
- C) Permitted if the broker approves it.
- D) Legal if the buyer signs a disclosure form.

49. Which article of the New York Real Property Law governs the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salespersons?

- A) Article 9-A
- B) Article 12-A
- C) Article 14
- D) Article 15

50. A seller in Ithaca wants to list their property. They agree that broker Harris can keep any sales proceeds that exceed $500,000. Under New York law, this arrangement is:

- A) Legal if both parties sign a written net listing agreement.
- B) Strictly illegal; net listings are prohibited in New York.
- C) Permitted only in commercial transactions.
- D) Allowed if the broker discloses the fee structure to the DOS.

Answer Key & Explanations

Question 1: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 2: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 3: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 4: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 5: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 6: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 7: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 8: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 9: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 10: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 11: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 12: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 13: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 14: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 15: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 16: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 17: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 18: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 19: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 20: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 21: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 22: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 23: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 24: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 25: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 26: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 27: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 28: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 29: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 30: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 31: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 32: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 33: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 34: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 35: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 36: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 37: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 38: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 39: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 40: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 41: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 42: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 43: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 44: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 45: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 46: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 47: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.

Question 48: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Under New York law, splitting commissions or paying referral fees to unlicensed individuals for real estate services is strictly prohibited.

Question 49: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Article 12-A of the New York Real Property Law is the primary state statute that regulates real estate brokers and salespersons.

Question 50: Correct Answer (B)

Explanation: Net listings (where the broker's commission is based on the excess above a specified price) are strictly illegal in New York.