

SECTION 11. Vehicle Registration Requirements

You need to register your vehicle in California to use it in the state. For more information, visit dmv.ca.gov/vrservices.

BUYING OR SELLING A VEHICLE

When you buy a vehicle, you have 10 days to transfer ownership to your name.

When you sell a vehicle, you must notify DMV within five days by completing a Notice of Transfer and Release of Liability at dmv.ca.gov/nrl.

OUT-OF-STATE VEHICLES

You have 20 days to register your vehicle after you become a resident or get a job in California. For more information, visit dmv.ca.gov/outofstatevr.

All vehicles registered in California are required to meet California requirements including vehicle emission controls in support of California's clean air standards. DMV cannot register a vehicle if it does not qualify.
