

4. A felony under Chapter 481 that is not a drug offense

Family Code Violations

1. Delinquent conduct by a minor or juvenile

Suspend or Revoke After Hearing of Minor

DPS has the authority to suspend or revoke the license or driving privilege of a minor after a proper hearing, for:

1. A juvenile court order
2. Failure to pay a fine or juvenile contempt, and
3. Two or more traffic convictions occurring separately within any 12-month period for a driver who is less than 18 years of age

Administrative License Revocation (ALR)

The Administrative License Revocation (ALR) law provides an administrative penalty for driving while intoxicated. A $125 reinstatement fee is required for all ALR suspensions.

DPS is authorized to suspend a license or driving privilege:

1. For individuals who are over 21 years of age who fail a breath or blood test (the blood alcohol content indicates a level of 0.08 or more)
2. Of any person who refuses to submit to a breath or blood test, or
3. For individuals who are under 21 years of age for any detectable amount of alcohol

Cancellations

DPS is authorized to cancel the driver license or ID card of individuals who do not meet certain qualifications. The following types of cases require cancellation of a driver license or ID card:

1. Suspension and revocation action from another state
2. Parental authorization withdrawn (for individuals who are under 18 years of age)
3. Failure to give the required information on the application for the license or ID card
4. Person is not entitled to the license or ID card
5. Incomplete driver education
6. False statement on an application for a license or ID card

Court-Ordered Suspensions, Revocations, and Cancellations

Upon receipt of a court order, DPS will suspend, revoke, or cancel a license or driving privilege for:

1. Delinquent child support
2. Requirement for an ignition interlock device (see <https://www.dps.texas.gov/section/driver-license/ignition-interlock-devices> for more information)
3. Failure to repay any overpayment of food stamps or financial assistance
4. Mentally incapacitated
5. Chemically dependent
6. Failure to renew their license annually as required (classified sex offender)