

The vehicle registration, license or driving privilege of a driver will be suspended:

1. Upon conviction of a traffic violation that requires a suspension of a driver license, unless evidence of insurance is presented to DPS;
2. If a judgment resulting from a crash has not been satisfied within 60 days of the judgment;
3. If an installment agreement arising out of a settlement of a crash is in default;
4. If, while uninsured, the individual was involved in a crash in which another person was killed, injured, or there was at least $1,000 damage to a person's property and there exists a reasonable probability of a judgment being rendered against the driver; and
5. When required to maintain evidence of financial responsibility for two years from the most recent conviction date.
