

2.7 | STEERING

Place your hands outside the wheel, on the top half of the steering wheel. This will give you the best control.

Imagine that the steering wheel is a clock. Each hour represents a location for you to hold the wheel. In the image above, the driver's hands are at 9:00 and 3:00.

There are three turning methods that can provide smooth, continuous steering control.